Fracht Group Takes Next Steps to Further Commitment to Sustainability

HOUSTON, TEXAS - Fracht Fwo, Inc. announced today the further expansion of its Sustainability and ESG team to bolster its commitment to environmental, social and governance practices.

The team will be led by Delfina Govia in the newly created role of Chief Sustainability Officer, with an immediate focus on directing stakeholder-driven programs for the North American market. Ms. Govia has over 40 years of global experience in the energy industry, where she has led organizations and activities in strategy & transformation, operations, and consulting. In addition, over the last fifteen years, she has helped national and international companies define and implement sustainability programs. Delfina holds a B.S. and MBA from Cornell University.

Mr. Ralph Stierli also joins the team as Vice President of Global ESG and Sustainability, supporting the Fracht Group's initiatives worldwide. Mr. Stierli has over 30 years of experience in freight forwarding and logistics. In 2020, he led the launch of Solaris Global, an innovative Fracht Group subsidiary specializing in warehousing and supply chain solutions for the renewable energy industry, where he will continue to serve as a member of the advisory board. Born in Zurich, Switzerland, Ralph graduated from Zurich Business School.

The Sustainability and ESG team is backed by the Fracht Group's operational, technical, and financial professionals delivering operational excellence to provide sustainable and integrated 4PL solutions to its customers.

Ruedi Reisdorf, Fracht Group Owner, said, "Fracht has always been actively committed to sustainability, and now, with this dedicated team, we are expanding our efforts to bring greater positive impact to our stakeholders."

The Fracht Group is an international freight forwarder and an industry leader in providing general and specialized logistics solutions. The Swiss-based company was founded in 1955 by Mr. Ruedi Reisdorf Sr. and, to this day, remains independently owned, with over 125 offices worldwide in over 40 countries.
